Dear Gus:

I did see Sir Mac the other evening in Stockholm, and we had a chance to discuss your travel plans next year. I am pleased and confident that a very satisfactory arrangement can be worked out, and this will be for you to discuss with him upon his return.

We also did a postmortem on the Gatlinburg conference, and the end closure which should be self-explanatory is a result. Sir Mac hasn't seen this typescript, and I would appreciate your passing it on, or having it copied as soon as he returns; we did go over the proposal in some detail. Insofar as it really is one segment of his own scheme, (at the expense of the main proposal) I suspect he will be fairly congenial to it.

Best regards,

Joshua Lederberg
